Business Items

1. INFORMATION/DISCUSSION

Title: Vision and Goals Presentation

This item is to discuss Senate vision and goals for the 2020-2021 school year, including committee objectives presented by the chairs.

Presenter: Katelyn Pan, Grace Lim, Kimberly Lam, Kirana Rafli, Heidi Liauw, Yuetong Zhang, Ananya Bapat, Kaitlyn Pasaylon

Time: 40 minutes

- Grace shared the Finance Committee has five goals this quarter: Propose new projects and strategies to increase and diversify DASB revenue, work with the college administration and external companies to provide DASB cardholders with additional benefits, increase the DASB scholarships, increase efficiency and equitability of the budget deliberation process, and advocate for the institutionalization of the central programs on campus
- Kimberly shared SRS overall goals include striving to represent and raise student voices on campus, share resources and services available for students, communicate student needs to DASB Senate and Board of Trustees, host the Student Resource Fair event and various other events, and finishing projects from last year.
- Kirana shared Marketing has three main plans for the upcoming year which include a DASB Newsletter, DASB Film Project, and DASB online presence.
 - Kirana noted that marketing is there to serve all committees, but needs people to join the committee to help out.
- Yuetong shared ES wants to inform and engage students within their own homes by providing infographics and tutorials, hold a virtual ES workshop, and incentivize clubs and organizations to engage in sustainability practices.
 - The Eco Charger Project was approved in January, but was postponed due to COVID-19.
 - ES also plans to research how SJCC funds their research programs and orient their research in sustainability-directed fields.
- Ananya shared Legislative Affairs is working on the Senator Stipend Resolution, student housing, and getting party registration approved by the board.
 - SSCCC is also doing work with institutional racism by hosting town halls where students can voice their opinions and experiences.

- Kaitlyn shared the Flea Market’s vision is to improve community involvement online for the De Anza Flea Market. They have three main goals: Increase the amount of online posts and becoming more active on social media, expand to new platforms, and get a better profile on each of their vendors to promote them better.
 - Kaitlyn noted they want more business minded people on the committee to promote vendors and the Flea Market better
- Katelyn opened up the discussion to everyone to discuss their personal goals for the upcoming year and brainstorms they may have
- Grace shared the importance of sharing your opinions to improve diversity within the Senate
 - Yuetong pointed out that the Senate is largely represented by Asians
- Hyon Chu noted it is important to have a conversation about how to grow the pool of candidates for the next election for more diversity and whether the Senate should discuss what they can do differently.
 - Hyon Chu suggested possibly reserving certain seats for representatives from different programs
 - Hyon Chu shared information about the AB963 assembly bill
- Kimberly shared why DASB should work with diverse organizations on campus that have done advocacy work to improve diversity within DASB.
- Yvette suggested looking back to see what DASB did right and wrong.
 - Yvette noted DASB should begin reaching out to minority groups rather than expecting them to seek out information.
- Nowara shared there is a lack of information about joining DASB and suggested sending out a survey to understand issues students are having, roadblocks students are experiencing within DASB, and opinions on the DASB running process.
- Katelyn noted the most pertinent issue for DASB is diversity and the running process for DASB. She asked how DASB can make a cohesive statement that everyone can look at for the year.
 - Hyon Chu mentioned each committee should make their own statements and have a formal facilitation to create goals and statements

2. INFORMATION/DISCUSSION

Title: Projects Discussion

This item is to discuss the unfinished projects of the 2019-2020 Senate and which we should continue and begin working on for this school year.

Presenter: Kirana Rafli, Yuetong Zhang, Ananya Bapat, Grace Lim

Time: 30 minutes

- Kirana shared all Marketing projects being worked on are new, and they don't have any continuing projects other than Instagram and online presence.
- Yuetong shared a prominent issue that needs to be addressed is systemic racism and DASB has been asked to start a Student-Led Coalition to address this issue on campus.
 - Another issue is aggressive army and religious recruiters on campus and the goal is to ban army recruitment on campus and set standards for recruitment.
- Ananya discussed the issue of Student Housing, working on the Resource Poster to make accessible to all students, and mentioned the paid Stipend Resolution should resolve diversity within DASB
- Grace shared information about the following three projects for Finance this year:
 - Institutionalization of essential programs
 - Increasing alternative sources of income
 - Silvia Chalista Memorial Scholarship
