

"Women, Life, Freedom"

Student Voices: Women's Uprising in Iran

Wednesday, November 16, 2022

11:30 am-1:30 pm

De Anza College- Hanson Campus Center

Conference Room B

21250 Stevens Creek Blvd, Cupertino

Free Parking

Connecting with our students, faculty, and community members to learn more about the unrest in Iran

Presented by

VIDA, Office of Equity, Division of Social Science and Humanities

Cosponsored with SJSU Human Rights Institute

"Women, Life, Freedom" is a movement in Iran that has taken storm worldwide. On September 16, 2022, 22-year-old Mahsa Amini was killed because she did not wear her hijab correctly by the Iranian morality police. Countless waves of international protests show solidarity with the women in Iran for their freedom to choose.

For More Info: kaufmancynthia@fhda.edu